Drinking water provided at this premise has been found to contain HIGH LEVELS OF NATURALLY OCCURRING FLUORIDE.

While fluoride helps to prevent tooth decay, excessive exposure to high levels of fluoride may have adverse effects. People consuming this water should consider limiting their exposure to fluoride from other sources.

Fluoride will not be removed by boiling the water.